DYSLEXIC READERS NEEDED!
Native-English speaking adults (18-45) with a history of reading difficulty needed to participate in research study.

To be included you must:

- Have a history of dyslexia
- Be a native-English speaker (no other language heard or spoken before 5 years)
- Be right handed
- Be between 18 and 45
- Have normal or corrected vision
- Have normal hearing
- Have no history of psychiatric illness or neurological disease
- Have never been knocked unconscious

Earn CASH up to $100 or more!! if you qualify.

The study involves multiple visits, behavioral testing, and an opportunity to continue in the brain imaging phase of the study.

For more information, and to schedule an appointment, please call Janet at 617-353-5923
Cognitive Neuropsychology Laboratory Boston University

The Study will be conducted at Boston University and Massachusetts General Hospital.